

External wall between the existing single storey side section to be built up to form stepped parapet detail to enable internal ceiling height to match other internal rooms

Extension to existing single storey side section to be built in facing brick to match the existing dwelling

Window to existing single storey side section to be removed and left hand side jamb extended and made good; new smaller window to be fitted; also existing rendered panel below existing window to be removed and built in facing bricks to match the existing dwelling

FRONT ELEVATION